NEW TAX GROUP
ASSAILS WASTE
OF PUBLIC MONEYCharges County Board
Pads Expenses on
Road TripsE. R. ORVIS PRESIDENT
OF NEW ASSOCIATION

Curialment of waste and illegal practices in every department of Lake county government was demanded by Lake county taxpayers Saturday night when the Central Lake County Taxpayers Association was organized at Grayslake.

A resolution unanimously adopted demands that members of the county board cease charging mileage for separate trips to committee meetings when more than one meeting is held at the same place on the same day. This practice, leaders of the new group declared, has cost the county thousands of dollars and is a drain on the taxpayers. Many board members have made separate transportation charges when attending more than one committee meeting at Waukegan on the same day, it is charged by the taxpayers.

"Loose Methods" Charged.

A resolution charging the board as a whole and "a certain committee in particular" with "loose and unbusinesslike management of the county finances" was passed at the meeting.

Another resolution was passed condemning the payment of the county superintendent of highways $7,000 a year, when $4,500 a year is authorized in the annual budget.

Warning to the supervisors to use great care in providing poor relief was issued by the association. The warning declares that many people who have jobs have received aid in the past and that many shiftless people have received more aid than have the ak inquiry. It made that the board make careful investigation of patients sent to the county hospital to prevent those having sufficient money for treatment from receiving free medical attention.

More than seventy leaders from various west-county communities attended the meeting.

They elected E. R. Orvis, of Lake Villa, president; William Leas, of Grayslake, vice-president; Douglas Walte, of Antioch, treasurer, and Mrs. William E. Bacon, of Round Lake, secretary.

All business was suspended in Antioch yesterday afternoon in honor of those who gave all for their country. Banks were closed all day and both the grade school and high school pupils were dismissed at noon.

COUNTY FIREMEN
MEET IN ANTIOCH
VILLAGE HALLDecide to Organize County
Group; John Horan
Presents Plans

Representatives of the village fire departments of Lake county met in the Antioch village hall Tuesday evening to discuss plans for the organization of the Lake County Firemen's association, comprising four village volunteer units and sixty individual members. The vote was unanimous in favor of forming the association.

Plans for the organization were presented by John Horan, secretary for the Antioch volunteer group, and Glenn Craft, Grayslake department secretary.

The group is formed primarily to work out common problems that arise from time to time in the volunteer forces. The association will sponsor fire prevention, education, co-operation between neighboring departments in time of fire disaster, and standardization of equipment.

Of principal interest to association members is legislation which will make possible the assessment of large fines for the starting of a fire. This type of fire has become a menace in rural communities and the association is interested in any measure that will cut down losses from this source.

The banding together of rural departments may in time serve to lower insurance rates to their former levels. It is reported that some companies have raised their rates to $6 per $1,000 of property valuation.

Delegates to the meeting were Chief Allen McMillen and Secretary Glenn Craft of Grayslake; Captain William Critt of Grayslake; Captain William Fox of Lake; Secretary William Dalziel and Captain Gordon Gillings of Grayslake; and Chief James Stearns, Secretary John Horan, and Driver Clarence Shultz of Antioch.

The first regular meeting of the association will be held at Libertyville on a date to be determined by committee.

ANTIOCH DENTISTS
EXAMINE CHILDREN
FREE OF CHARGE

Since the Lake County Tuberculosis association was unable to give the school children of the county a free examination this year, the three local dentists, Drs. E. J. Lutterman, A. C. Hightgate, and L. John Zimmerman, co-operated to the extent of giving the local grade school pupils a dental examination free of charge. The following won pins for having perfect teeth:

First Grade—Doris Strang, Theodora Hennings, Charles Mapletorpe, Wayne Drom.

Second Grade—Lila Cobb, Frank Petty, Arthur Mapletorpe.

Third Grade—Virginia Bovee, June Ellis, Florence Peterson, Jeanette Whitted, Mary Osmond, Mabel Warden, Doris Klass, Roy Aronson, Frederick Hawkins.

Watch Your Step
Tomorrow; It's
Friday, the 13th

Friday, unlucky. Thirteen, unlucky. Friday, the thirteenth—? Shades of black cats, fallen angels, and hell-born fairies will be in the air tomorrow. Tomorrow's the day when even the most confirmed skeptics watch their step. Tomorrow's the day when no projects and no trips should be begun, lest an evil fate befall them.

Decided as you may be to refrain from walking under ladders, spilling salt, running down black cats, or killing spiders on this day of power for the cloven-footed demons, ill luck will slip up behind you and clout you on the head in spite of all efforts to avoid the infernal tricksters. You may lose your pocketbook, break your great-grandmother's pickle dish, forget to turn off the iron, or— Well, beware!

Antioch Players Run
Contrary to Form

Just to be different, Antioch football players ran contrary to form yesterday and lost the game to Libertyville with a score of 25-0.

This was the last game of the season and being defeated meant the loss of the championship. Since Antioch's team was lighter than Libertyville's, its low score is attributed to the muddy condition of the field.

Four Families on Lake Street Move

Lake street has been the scene of much moving this week. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Leece have moved into the Hookway house on Spafford for the winter months; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mauser, Wilmette, have leased the Leece house; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Grutzmacher have moved from the Lester Osmond house to Park Ridge; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Isaacs have moved from the Gray apartments to the Kuba house.

Boone Leaders Believe a Higher Court Will Uphold
Shurtleff Injunction

CANDIDATES EAGER FOR DECISION

A court battle over the validity of the new Illinois reapportionment law recently ruled unconstitutional by Circuit Judge Edward D. Shurtleff, looms as leaders who secured the injunction are preparing to fight the case through the higher courts, taking it to the United States supreme court if necessary.

Meanwhile candidates who have announced themselves as aspirants for Congress from the new Thirteenth district are prosecuting their campaigns, although it is extremely doubtful whether or not the case will be decided in time for the April primaries. If not, the candidates will have to run in the Tenth district. A Congress seat is a Congress seat whether it be from one district or another, but the candidates would like to know how to file their petitions.

Districts Unequal. Opposition to the re-districting as made by the last state legislature, arose when it was pointed out that districts were unequal in population, and that some of the new districts, lines split some of the Chicago wards. Judge Shurtleff cited the inequality of the sizes of the districts stating: "The Fifth district in Chicago contains a population of 541,785, while the Seventeenth district contains 158,738."

Just why the legislature should disfranchise 260,000 persons in Chicago is not plain to be seen."

While Frank T. Moran and G. E. Caspar, Boone county leaders who secured the injunction, are confident the higher courts will uphold this decision, they are prepared for a last ditch fight.

SECOND P.T.A. MEET
IS WELL ATTENDED

An unusually large attendance at the second monthly meeting of the local Parent-Teacher Association gives promise of a very successful year. The present membership consists of over fifty parents, this being the largest number belonging since the unit was organized.

Miss Roberts Talks. "Reading for Leisure Time" was the subject of an entertaining and valuable talk given by Miss Cornelia Roberts. Lists of books for the boys and girls who do not like to read as well as lists for those who have read everything they felt there is to read were of great help to the parents. Miss Roberts stressed the value accruing from parents reading aloud to their families as a means of encouraging and stimulating interest in good books.

Pupils Entertain. The eighth grade pupils gave some very interesting and original character sketches and descriptions of the characters in Alice in Wonderland, while a special group read the third act of the dramatization of this story. Everyone enjoyed the subtle humor of Lewis Carroll and Alice, read by Jeanette Peterson.

Following the program delightful refreshments were served at the "Mad Tea Party" by Mrs. Llewellyn Van Patten, chairman, and Mrs. Chris Mortenson, assistant chairman, with the help of other eighth grade room mothers. A favor in the form of a mad mother on each tray caused much amusement, those having been drawn by the children of the art department. Also a large book with original drawings of various characters in Alice in Wonderland was exhibited.

Urges Membership. The president extended a special invitation to all parents who have not as yet joined to do so before the next meeting and assist in raising the total membership to 100.

Interesting programs are being planned and in addition to the children's program speakers will be provided.

Following the dinner will be a time of visiting and renewing friendships and acquaintances.

Announcements and invitations are being sent far and near to former residents of this community of whom many will be present or send greetings to the gathering which will be read in the afternoon. There will be a short program in the afternoon consisting of special music by the choir, short talks by former pastors who may be present, reading of the greetings sent by absent friends and a reading of the history of the church by J. O. James.

In most cases, your present furnace or boiler can be converted to gas simply by having a gas-burner installed in the firebox. This can be done in the middle of the heating season without serious inconvenience to you. And then an automatic temperature control will take complete charge of your heating system. HintsTake Time to Teach
Your Child the Right
Way to Wash Dishes

Why teach your child to dislike dishwashing? Little children usually are interested in doing the things that grownups do, and they love to feel that they are helping. Instead of telling her that she is too little when she tries to wash the dishes, that you are too busy to teach her, or that it is a disagreeable job and that she ought to be glad that she does not have to do it, stop and help her and let her learn to help you.

If the child could be taught right methods at the time when she wants to learn, she would never lose her first idea that dishwashing is an important and interesting task. Extra time must be spent in teaching her and there are bound to be broken dishes, but the time will be returned when she grows older, and the broken dishes are only fair payment in return for a child who washes dishes willingly rather than under protest.

Family co-operation will prevent the task from becoming monotonous and lonely. If each member of the family will carry to the kitchen, scrape, and pile his own dishes, and one person dry the dishes while the other washes them, the procedure will be rapid, easy and sociable. The best method for each family can of course be worked out best by the family itself.

Pineapple Is Within Reach of Everyone

America is one of the few and very fortunate countries in which pineapple is both cheap and extremely plentiful. The history of the pineapple associates it always with the tables of the rich. Only in America has it become an article of daily diet—a delicious delicacy within reach of even the most modest purse.

There are many pleasant ways to use it at every meal, and between meals for beverages, candies and incidental snacks. Here is a recipe for pineapple waffles which has been tried and found exceptionally good:

Beat three egg yolks well, and add one and one-fourth cups milk. Sift together two cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder, and one-half teaspoon salt, and add to the above. Next add six tablespoons melted butter and two-thirds cups drained pineapple, crushed. Fold in three stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake on hot waffle iron at table. The electric iron should be preheated ten minutes before making the first waffle. Serve with pineapple sauce and pass cubes of plain American cheese.

To make pineapple sauce simmer one cup crushed pineapple, one cup sugar, and three-fourths cup water until syrupy. Add three drops of oil of peppermint, cool to lukewarm and serve on waffles.

Rewritten for Children

THE STORM

"Then bring them hither, Ariel," said Prospero when he told him the King of Naples and Antonio were sorry for being so mean. "If you who are but a spirit feel for their distress, shall not I who am a human being like themselves have compassion on them? Bring them quickly, my dainty Ariel."

Wondering at the strange music he played in the air to draw them on to his master's presence, the King of Naples and Antonio followed him to where Prospero was.

They were so scared and sorry that they did not know Prospero. Antonio, with tears and sad words of sorrow, asked his brother to forgive him, and Prospero forgave them and then he said to the King of Naples, "I have a gift in store for you," and, opening a door, showed him his son, Ferdinand, playing chess with Miranda.

The father and his son were both happy now at this unexpected meeting, for they each thought the other drowned in the storm.

"O wonder," said Miranda, "what noble creatures these are! Surely it must be a brave world that has such people in it!"

The King of Naples was almost as much astounded at the beauty and excellent graces of the young Miranda as his son had been. "Who is this maid?" said he; "she seems the goddess that has parted us, and brought us thus together." "No, sir," answered Ferdinand, smiling to find his father had fallen into the same mistake that he had done when he first saw Miranda, "she is a mortal, but by immortal providence she is mine; I chose her when I could not ask you, my father, for consent, not thinking you were alive."

Prospero then embraced his brother and Antonio was so filled with remorse that he wept and was unable to speak.

Prospero now told them that he and Miranda would accompany them home. Before he left the island, however, he dismissed Ariel from his service, to the great joy of that lively little spirit, who, though he had been a faithful servant to his master, had always wanted to enjoy his free liberty, to wander like a wild bird. Ariel was so happy to think that he had been set free that he sang this pretty song:

"Where the bee sucks, there suck I:
In a cowslip bell I lie:
There I couch where owls do cry:
On the bat's back I do fly.

After summer merrily,
Merrily, merrily shall I live now
Under the blossom that hangs on the bough."

(The End.)

Put on More Steam

A New York expert in child training says that the way to treat a crying child is to make believe you don't know it is crying. But when the baby sees that he is making no dent, he hitches on both lungs and redoubles his efforts, so what's the use?

Be Prepared With "Better Breakfasts"

In making your plans for the winter it is just as important to lay in a good supply of sustaining breakfast menus as it is to see that the furnace or steam heating apparatus is in order, or that there is plenty of coal and wood on hand. One type of fuel heats the house and the other the body—which would you say was the more important?

Just about November the family develops a man-sized winter appetite—everybody wants a good breakfast and needs one. It doesn't make any difference whether the order of the day is business, school or stay-at-home, when the sparkling November sunlight shines in on the breakfast table, when a fire in the house feels good and the home becomes a cozy refuge in a brilliant fall world, then is the moment to be prepared with "better breakfasts". Here is one which answers that description:

Grape Fruit Halves
Corned Beef Hash
with poached Eggs
Toast Coffee Apple Butter

Corned beef hash with poached eggs

is made as follows:

Mix one 12-ounce can of corned beef, two cups finely chopped boiled potatoes and quarter cup milk; season to taste. Flatten out in a skillet with a little hot fat, and brown well on one side, turn over and brown on the other side. Slide out onto a hot platter and lay six poached eggs on top. This serves six.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Sealed, on Sunday, November 8.

The Golden Text was, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light" (Ephesians 5:14).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth forever" (1 Peter 1:24, 25).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science separates error from truth, and breathes the sacred pages the spiritual sense of life, substance, and intelligence. In this Science, we discover man in the image and likeness of God. We see that man has never lost his spiritual estate and his eternal harmony" (p. 548).

In case you've forgotten — just a few more days until Christmas.

We are in the lumber business but we don't sell lumber! Nor do you buy lumber. You buy homes and barns and repair work. The material is incidental. That's why we stress the service end of our business. If we can help you realize your plans and ideas, the lumber business will look after itself.

"It gives you a fine aristocratic feeling to lie in bed and ring for a valet."

"Oh, have you a valet?"

"No, but I have a bell."

You have been waiting a long time to do that building. You have been waiting for conditions to get better. Well, conditions ARE better. Not for fifteen years have building costs been so low.

We've often wondered just where some mothers found out all the things they tell their daughters not to do.

The first cold weather of the year always brings a rush of coal orders. We are glad to have them, of course. But it is sometimes humanly impossible to deliver all orders as promptly as we'd like. Can't we put in a load for you now?

One thing Job never had to contend with was a disappearing draw string on his pajama trousers.

Every building in town which is covered with plain surfaced roll roofing should have a coat of Mole-Hide Roof Coating and Lap Cement about every third year. This would prolong its service almost indefinitely. Let us help you.

CHEER UP!

Have you been guilty of wearing a woe-begone, no-friend-left expression recently? Do you talk constantly of the hard times and the black future?

If you do, what use is it? What does anyone get by going over and over again the details of misfortune—but unhappiness? Today is too precious to future memories to waste away in fault-finding.

With one magical touch the cloudiest times may be turned into happy ones. And that fairy wand is found in a smile, a cheerful word, a bit of encouragement. Something to make us laugh—to make us forget our troubles is what we need in this period of depression.

By the way, haven't you noticed a different tone in the conversation of Antioch business men in the last week or two? Instead of wondering how much deeper into the financial hole the country was going to get, more people are expressing their confidence that business is going to get better very soon.

This is a very hopeful sign. The principal trouble with the general situation lately has been lack of confidence on the part of those who have money. They have been unwilling to spend their money—to invest it where it would be doing useful work—because of the feeling that perhaps after all prices had not yet touched bottom.

MAKING THE GRADE

No less an authority than Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, health commissioner of New York city, in his outline of requirements for school children, says, "Keeping your youngsters in health is not an arduous proposition, but it requires a little care on your part. He should have a filling luncheon such as soup or salad, sandwiches, macaroni and cheese, or some other easily prepared dish, and with whatever he eats he should always have a glass of milk. When he returns home from school in the afternoon, he should have a bite, such as a sandwich and a glass of milk, as well as an apple or some other fruit. For his evening meal he should be able to eat the same dishes as the rest of the family, plus a glass of milk. His diet as well as ours should include plenty of fresh vegetables, particularly of the leafy variety, such as cabbage, lettuce, kale and spinach. Tomatoes, too, are important.

"If this balanced diet, plus the milk, is adhered to, the child will stay in health, providing the other cardinal rules of health are obeyed. These are: At least 8 hours sleep in a well-ventilated room; plenty of exercise and recreation in the open air and sunshine, and frequent bathing."

We expect top grades from our children. They have a right to expect carefully selected, adequate, growth producing and protective food from us.

WANT LUXURIES, BUT CANNOT BUY THEM

It is easier for the person who has long been poor and obliged to save and skimp to meet fortune than it is for the rich and well-to-do to meet and struggle with a change in income so that there will be need of saving and thrift. That seems to be one of the troubles of the hour. We have been luxurious. We have "had" things. Now it seems hard to adjust ourselves to new conditions and to top off the luxuries.

The clamor of the newspapers and representatives of business to have people buy has no apparent effect. Homilies on the subject have come from scores of business leaders but to no purpose.

Nor will it come except from necessity and an adjustment of tastes to conditions. Never was the consumer so able to get benefits in every line of commodities, whether staples or luxuries, as now. His refusal to be active in the buying market is that he has not made up his mind to reduce his demands to harmonize with his purse. When he does that there can't help but be a buying flood. "Need spurs when Desire would lag." We must readjust ourselves to a new basis. This period of inflation will soon be no more, but before we will be better off than we are now, we must recognize this fact.

THE HOME NEWSPAPER

It has been said that no institution not founded on fundamental human need can live. The reverse of this is also true. That is why the home newspaper, as an institution, has survived many things: the onslaught of individual opposition, the increase of printing costs, the peril of unpaid subscriptions, the uncertainty of advertising patronage, the problem of its professional competition, and the hazards of its own mistakes. Through all of these the home newspaper will live.

When subjected to the test of whether the home newspaper could be done without, there always follows the inevitable reaction of whether the people of the community want to do without it. The more than 17,000 dailies, weeklies, semi-weeklies, and tri-weeklies of the United States and Canada stands as proof of the important service the newspaper renders.

The newspaper is not a fad nor an invention—it is a growth that has been made possible by the co-operation and receptive spirit of the people themselves because of the need for the transmission of news and a circulation medium for advertising products.

GOOD TIMES KNOCKING AT THE DOOR

There has been so much bunk written and spoken about the present situation in the business world that it is refreshing to find one or two sane observers with their feet firmly on the ground of facts and common sense. Such an observer is William E. Shepherd, business expert of Collier's Weekly, who has just completed a cautious and considered survey of the economic world. His principal finding is that good times are knocking at the door, and that the main impetus for another era of prosperity will come from the United States.

"We always get some new and good ideas out of hard times," says Mr. Shepherd. "Such ideas were our postal savings banks, our improved banking regulation, our federal reserve system, the idea that workers are consumers and as such must not be crippled by wage reductions. We are now coming to the end of blind production, in times," says Mr. Shepherd. "Such ideas were our postal the race of individual nations to corner the world's business for themselves. Maverick nations are out and there will be something new in the world—law, order, and certainty, instead of world-wide business anarchy."

ARMISTICE DAY

Again—Armistice Day! And again the memories—sweet and sad—of those near and dear to us who fought and gave much for their country.

The peace years roll onward, leaving the memories clearer and more poignant. But the bitterness recedes with the echoes of gun powder, leaving only the constructive inspiration that comes out of any war.

On Armistice Day we paused and paid respect to the dead and tribute to the living.

LAKE VILLA WOMEN ENTERTAIN ANTIOCH, LONG LAKE CLUBS

The regular meeting of the Woman's club was held at Lincoln hall, Alhambra, last Tuesday, and visitors were entertained from the Antioch and Long Lake clubs. As it was also guest day for the local club, the hall was well-filled. Mrs. Nixon, president, called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock and the business of the day was transacted. A visitor from the settlement house in Waukegan was present and gave her hearers an idea of the kind of work they do among the poor people of the country, and had several garments to illustrate what useful things could be made from what people usually throw away. Miss Irene Friend Joachim, Chicago, was then introduced. She is a dramatic reader, of great ability, and held the attention of her audience from start to finish with her splendid interpretations of sketches from real life. The hostess committee, in charge of Mrs. Gulletto, served cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robel, nee Lena Sehorn, who have lived in Oshkosh for some time, have moved to the Williams cottage in West View addition and Mrs. Robel's father, Will Sehorn, is living with them.

Think It Over

Taxpayers' Questions

If public payrollers are so energetic in collecting taxes and fees due from taxpayers, why put so much enthusiasm in getting public money returned to taxpayers who have paid it?

What tax-consuming body, including school board, protests when the tax levies of a public utility is reduced?

How do taxpayer factory workers feel a 2 per cent wage cut in the form of an enforced donation for the unemployed?

What taxpayer knows where $30,000 was disbursed for Lake Shore drive purposes and for whose benefit and why?

If the charity drive workers are breakfasted, dined and luncheoned, why not hire a hotel and give them full bed and board?

When a factory sincerely tries to aid its taxpayer employees by getting them fuel at reduced prices, why does a civic organization horn in?

If a commission city government abandons the taxpayers' streets and gives a utility concern about everything it wants without going to the commerce commission, why cannot an aldermanic government undo part of this mischief without the consent of the commerce commission?

Why is it that a commission often gives a utility a long time to argue before it and then obliges taxpayer people to reply immediately if not sooner?

Just which aldermen really think an audit is too technical for the poor dumb taxpayers to understand and do not the payrollers fear that the simple taxpayers already understand too well what the audit means?

Does any taxpayer appreciate how many phones he pays for in the schools and why?

Are not taxpayers justified in paying for a little action from the public payrollers who might recover into the public till much coin that has been illegally disbursed for "extras" and Santa Claus salaries, especially to an engineer who says he will take his doll and go home far away if the candy is taken away by bold bad taxpayers?

If a city press is unfriendly to militant organized taxpayers and a rural editor helps these honest taxpayers fight their battles for honest disbursements of public funds, why should not all taxpayers make it their particular business to trade with advertisers who use a friendly medium to communicate with appreciative taxpayers?

Why do so many taxpayers smile when they observe public payrollers catering to taxpayer organizations or officials when so many appreciate that too many payrollers are slaves to a political ring or special interests?

If certain candidates with public record none too good so promptly announce themselves as ready again to sacrifice themselves for the public good, when will the militant taxpayers learn of their now qualifications?

Will a county auditor be selected upon the principal that it takes a thief to catch a thief when the taxpayers' coin is in jeopardy from illegal disbursements of petty cash, etc.?

Cannot taxpayers learn why taxes have been so high if they can get a fair chance to read the audit of the general fund of our county seat city?

How can a late commission square itself, after taxpayers read the 4-year audit that cannot be published because "it is so hard to understand" and for other reasons, perhaps?

Do the payrollers really think many taxpayers are dumb about publishing an honest municipal audit that is loaded with political dynamite and tombstones for dead ones who fooled the living so long?

After getting just a glimmer of the municipal audit that is "too technical" for the sucker public to understand, what simple taxpayer does not rejoice that he voted to abolish the late commission whose acts are characterized by the audit by experts in just too plain language for publication?

Why are taxpayers asking why does municipality act only under the city service when it is convenient for the politicians in temporary power?

When a municipal audit mentions five cases of ginger ale, why is it silent on the conventional trimmings?

What taxpayer sees any kick out of observing how some public payrollers create jobs for their kinsfolk and friends before winter comes?

"Petty Cash" Covers Multitude of Mystery Expenses, Audit Shows

No "Supporting Evidence" in Many Instances, Young Report Declares

The Waukegan audit just released includes several pages of hints to taxpayers under the classification of disbursements which may or may not have been authorized, as under the past procedure no permanent record was kept of such authorizations and militant taxpayers are very busy trying to solve the mysteries that are hidden in numerous items, among which are these prices:

"July 15, 1929, petty cash, $38, currency for 7 days special police—no payroll or detail."

"August 8, 1929, petty cash, $82.50, special police services by Wilson L. Gee, Jr., signed W. L. Gee."

"November 4, 1929, petty cash, $125, requisition reads 'Petty cash $125,' approved by W. L. Gee."

"September 5, 1929, petty cash, $185, cash for special police work, signed W. L. Gee."

"November 21, 1927, Broadway Ice Cream Parlor, $12, five cases of ginger ale, Fire Department, approved by W. L. Gee."

"June 23, 1930, petty cash, $45, expenses not explained, signed Gee."

"September 9, 1929, Waukegan Nursery, $20, two elms planted on property at 1101 North Sheridan road."

"September 9, 1929, John B. Kukar, $225, dirt billed to water department and charged to cemetery, also $30 short in extension."

"February 19, 1928, petty cash, $24.06, no supporting evidence for $9.96 while balance of $15 reads 'L. O. U. $15 Yager account petty cash February 27, 1928.'"

"March 19, 1928, Waukegan Daily News, $439.78, 5,442 lines at cents per line, with no clippings attached."

"May, 1930, petty cash, $200, expense to American Water Works convention at St. Louis, signed by R. J. Pearal per L. J."

"August 11, 1930, C. C. Wenban and Sons Lake Forest, $58.50, repairs to W. H. Nibbelink's car."

These are just a few of the minor samples for current debate among the tax hounds of economy in public office.

Accrued Wages 157.50

Fund Accruals 204,455.68

320,046.72

$784,555.69

In preparing the Balance Sheet of the City at April 30, 1931 we have classified the various funds as follows:

General Fund:
Public Affairs Fund
Accounts and Finances Fund
Public Health and Safety Fund
Streets and Public Improvement Fund

Public Property Fund
Restricted, Special and Trust Funds - City Bond Interest Fund
City Bond Sinking Fund
Public Benefit Fund
Firemen's Pension Fund
Library Fund
Cemetery Trust Fund
Recreation System Fund
2% Fire Insurance Fund
Garbage Disposal Fund

In considering the current position of the General Fund, the following Assets and Liabilities are of a current nature but we believe they should be excluded from immediate consideration inasmuch as they represent balances due to or from other departments of the City and do not directly concern outside interests:

Assets:
Due from Special Assessment Funds $ 123,155.67
Due from Water Works Plant No. 2 139,149.31

$262,304.98

Liabilities:
Due to Special Assessment Funds $140,375.66

The item of $140,375.66 due to the Special Assessment Funds is in fact a current obligation of the General Fund and should be paid as soon as possible. As a practical matter, however, the General Fund in its present financial position cannot pay this indebtedness.

The amount of $123,155.67 due from the Special Assessment Funds is applicable to a great many individual dockets and can only be paid to the General Fund when, as and if sufficient collections are received on these dockets. The ability of the Special Assessment Funds to pay this obligation is dependent, in a considerable measure, on the collection of the $140,375.66 due from the General Fund as well as of the $116,433.54 in past due public benefit assessments due from the city.

Furthermore the item of $139,149.31 due from Water Works Plant No. 2 can hardly be considered a current asset for the reason that the Balance Sheet of this Fund at April 30, 1931 indicates that there were no funds available at that date for the liquidation of this account. This item is discussed more fully hereafter in this report.

The current position of the General Fund, excluding from consideration the accounts previously discussed, is shown in the following summary:

Current Liabilities:
Accounts Payable $51,574.92
Accrued Wages 7,013.33
Tax Anticipation Warrants issued against 1930 taxes 172,000.00

$230,588.25

Current Assets:
Cash $18,812.27
Estimated Taxes Receivable for 1930 157,812.58

Interest Recd. 277.29

Due from Waterworks Plant No. 2 for 10% of uncollected Revenue 139,149.31

320,046.72

Excess of Current Liabilities over Current Assets $56,401.03

We wish at this point to make clear the fact that although the total cash in the depositories of the City amounted to $657,713.48 at April 30, 1931 all of this money except $18,812

SEEK "LOW-DOWN" ON SPECIAL SESSION

Eternal Vigilance Is Price of Liberty, Taxpayers Declare

Militant taxpayers are watching for the lowdown on the high points presented in the Governor's call of a special session of the general assembly.

Eternal vigilance may be the price of liberty to persons who do not want changes in many statutes among them those relating to the following items in the call:

Fifth. To enact laws to meet the financial emergencies of counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, park districts and all other municipal corporations and political subdivisions of the state.

Why not statutes to stop emergencies created by racketeering politicians?

Fourteenth. To authorize the issue of bonds for certain purposes without submission to the voters.

The militant organized taxpayers in all intelligent communities will never send back to Springfield any representatives who favor any such principle in any form. No bonds should be placed upon taxpayers without their knowledge and consent.

In Waukegan the late commission tried that game in a illegal city hall purchase. The owners put on a mortgage and the commission attempted to buy the property subject to that mortgage but the court killed the attempt to dodge a referendum.

Let the people rule at the ballot box, especially in money matters, is the battle cry of organized taxpayers in the banner Republican county in the state of Illinois.

27 belongs to restricted special funds and should not be used for the payment of any obligations of the General Fund.

Our comments regarding the assets and liabilities of the General Fund follow in the order in which they are stated on the Balance Sheet and those relative to certain assets and liabilities of the Restricted Special and Trust Funds are given later in this report in our discussion of the activities of the various funds.

Cash:
As previously stated the cash of Special Assessment Funds and other restricted special funds has been kept in the general bank accounts of the City instead of being deposited in separate bank accounts as required by state law.

Following is a summary of our reconciliation of the cash in banks per books at April 30, 1931 with the balances shown on the statements of the depositories at that date:

Cash in Banks as per Statements on file:

First National Bank, Waukegan, Illinois $241,079.83

Waukegan State Bank, Waukegan, Illinois 245,282.37

Waukegan National Bank, Waukegan, Illinois 172,024.91

$658,387.16

Less: Outstanding Checks 67,614.16

$590,773.00

Cash in Bank per Books - Special Assessment Funds $506,272.63

Restricted, Special and Trust Funds 133,128.58

General Fund 18,812.27

$657,713.48

We received a certificate of confirmation from the First National Bank Waukegan, Illinois, confirming the balance on deposit at that bank on April 30, 1931. We requested a certain amount in and in reply we were asked to have our representative obtain this information from the books of the bank. We, therefore, confirmed the amount at the bank. We also requested a certificate from the Waukegan National Bank which is now in receivership and the only response which we were able to obtain was to the effect that the City should file a claim.

We are informed that subsequent to April 30, 1931 the funds of the City on deposit in the First National Bank Waukegan, and the Waukegan National Bank were withdrawn and transferred to the Central Republic Bank and Trust Company and the Northern Trust Company which have furnished bonds in the amounts of $300,000 and $500,000, respectively. The Waukegan State Bank in which certain funds of the City were retained closed subsequent to April 30, 1931 and we understand that claim has been filed on the $200,000 bond that bank had furnished the City.

No petty cash funds are carried on the general books of the City. Inquiry disclosed that funds amounting to $300 and $200 were kept in the respective offices of the City Clerk and the City Collector. We counted these

Audit Discloses North and West Side "Extras"

Excess Cost Is Paid in Two Special Assessments for Street Paving

Now north and west side "extras" have been disclosed by the Young and Company audit just completed for Waukegan. These jobs were the forerunners in 1925 of the 1926 "extras" of many objections in the county court; however, nothing was ever done about these "extras" that are now disclosed for the first time and it is said to be too late to correct the situation because the court confirmed the jobs long before the "extras" racketeering came to light in connection with the 1926 deals.

The current audit for the last four years of the late commission includes the following:

"Special assessment No. 695 paying Stewart avenue. This paving job was awarded on the basis of a proposal price of $18,096.25."

"The final cost as shown on the city engineer's final estimate amounted to $21,878.11. The excess cost, equal to $3,781.86, is the result of extras allowed that did not appear on the proposal. The court confirmed the final certificate on the basis of the city engineer's final estimate and the records indicate that bonds and vouchers were delivered to the contractor for the full amount in advance of the court confirmation."

"Special assessment No. 595, paying Glen Rock avenue and Chapel street, etc."

"The final estimate on this project as approved by the court was for $131,536.24, or $4,654.94 in excess of the original estimate for $127,181.40."

"The final estimate included extras aggregating $7,461.24 which were not shown on the original estimate. Bonds and vouchers aggregating $131,336.21 are shown by the records to have been issued in advance of the date of court confirmation."

During the hearings on the 1926 "extras" cases, the court ruled in substance that nothing could be included in a final estimate that was not an item in the original estimate presented to the property owners when the improvement was submitted for consideration and objections by property owners.

The board of review, despite reductions on buildings of the company, allowed practically half of the increase made by the assessor on these. His valuations on the land of the company was not changed.

Figures of the previous assessor in 1930, those of Mr. Alford and of the 1931 board of review, are as follows:

Board of Review:
Land $ 38,000 $ 57,000 $ 57,000
Bldgs. 77,000 331,450 454,500
Personal 705,000 2,077,650 730,000

Unit five of the generating plant was not assessed this year because it was not yet in operation when the assessment was made, Alford said.

The board made a $198,000 reduction in the valuation of the Johnson-Manville Company, but the tax valuations on this corporation's property are still $379,000 higher than in 1930.

Slashed Johnson Rate.
The board also slashed $34,000 off the valuation set by Alford on the Johnson Motor Company. Other reductions in Waukegan township were minor.

The levy against which the warrants were issued. The surety company on the city treasurer's depository bond is reported to have $150,000 of these $172,000 warrants that are being questioned as to their validity and the taxpayers are wondering where they get off if the warrants are void.

John A. Carroll, a receiver of two closed Chicago banks, told the taxpayers much when he said, "Honest men have had a tough time during the last ten years. Racketeers have held the stage and honest men have remained on the sidelines. Politicians are parasites that should be scourged out of high places. . . . The racketeering lawyers are the biggest burden on real estate today. They should be disbursed." With $700,000 of taxpayers' coin in a local closed bank, militant organized taxpayers are pasting these words in their hats for future reference when racketeers bob up serenely.

In seventy-three banks for which receivers have been appointed, with deposit liabilities of $102,000,000, the real estate loans were $39,000,000 directly and $19,000,000 indirectly upon collateral loans, resulting in about $58,000,000 being tied up in real estate which is the first down and the last up in a slump which taxpayers must discount when seeking dividends on their $700,000 in one Lake County closed bank.

The number of checks made payable to "petty cash" during the period under review, many of which are listed in Appendix II, would possibly indicate that other petty cash funds may have been established. However, we were unable to find any funds in the City Hall other than those kept in the offices of the City Clerk and City Collector.

TAXPAYERS PLAN TO FIGHT CUT IN UTILITY TAX RATE

Board of Review Cuts $1,347,350 from Public Service Valuation

OTHER COMPANIES GET LOWER VALUATIONS

Action to prevent the reduction of $1,347,350 in personal property tax valuations of the Waukegan Generating Company, a Public Service Company subsidiary, allowed by the Lake county board of review, began this week when an investigation into the reduction was launched by the Waukegan Taxpayers' Association.

The Waukegan board of education and other taxing bodies are being urged to start a court fight against the reductions allowed by the board of review, according to W. F. Brochsen, president of the taxpayers' association.

County Affected, Alford Says.
Assessor Russ Alford expressed surprise at the reductions announced by the board of review Saturday when the board completed its work. Alford said:

"In 1930, personal property of the generating company was valued at $705,000. This did not include unit 4, an expensive addition to the Waukegan plant, which started operations in May 30, 1930. Company representatives wanted a $25,000 additional tax valuation for this unit, and this is what the board of review has given them. As result of this reduction the tax rate for other property owners in Waukegan will be higher, and even the rest of the county will be affected."

Alford boosted the personal property valuations of the company from $705,000 to $727,650, an increase of $172,650. The board reduced it to $730,000.

The assessor explained: "The Public Service Company of Northern Illinois is paying on a $700,000 valuation on a plant in Joliet which it hasn't operated for the last two years. The Waukegan plant is one of the best in the state and the board of review's valuation is absurd."

Increase Halved.
The board of review, despite reductions on buildings of the company, allowed practically half of the increase made by the assessor on these. His valuations on the land of the company was not changed.

Figures of the previous assessor in 1930, those of Mr. Alford and of the 1931 board of review, are as follows:

Board of Review:
Land $ 38,000 $ 57,000 $ 57,000
Bldgs. 77,000 331,450 454,500
Personal 705,000 2,077,650 730,000

Unit five of the generating plant was not assessed this year because it was not yet in operation when the assessment was made, Alford said.

The board made a $198,000 reduction in the valuation of the Johnson-Manville Company, but the tax valuations on this corporation's property are still $379,000 higher than in 1930.

Slashed Johnson Rate.

Tax Items Around Lake County

Straws that show which way the wind is blowing include numerous interesting current items of news.

With $700,000 taxpayers' money tied up in the Waukegan State bank, that bank's depositories' association, representing 7,000 people, unanimously approved a petition October 30 requesting State Auditor Nelson to resign, and it voted to join with the United Depositors Association of Illinois.

The city of Waukegan has brought suit to determine whether the National Surety Company or the Waukegan State bank's receiver owns $150,000 Waukegan tax warrants which were put up with the surety company by the bank to get a depository bond and now the receiver has demanded, has not offered to put up in court $150,000 to pay off the warrants.

The Times indicates that there may be litigation with the Waukegan State bank directors by the receiver because $172,000 of the Waukegan tax warrants are reported to have been issued for old warrants instead of being paid off from tax funds from year to year. The current audit of Waukegan discloses that in many instances during past years tax anticipation warrants were redeemed from the proceeds of new anticipation warrants issued for the succeeding year. Taxes received in past years were frequently used for purposes other than the redemption of outstanding warrants with a result that old warrants could only be redeemed with cash received from new warrants issued. This practice, the audit says, was said by the city attorney to be illegal. Furthermore, it causes the indebtedness to be of a permanent nature and payable out of future taxes rather than from funds on September 1, 1931 and found them intact. Although these petty cash funds do not appear on the books, we have given effect to them on the attached Balance Sheet.

The number of checks made payable to "petty cash" during the period under review, many of which are listed in Appendix II, would possibly indicate that other petty cash funds may have been established. However, we were unable to find any funds in the City Hall other than those kept in the offices of the City Clerk and City Collector.

THE SPECTATOR

The depression must be over—somebody saw a man put a penny in a patent gum machine, fail to get his gum, and leave quietly without calling the proprietor of the store to ask for his penny or his gum.

Have you looked over next year's calendar? If not, you may be interested to know that, being Leap year, February has twenty-nine days. The year will have fifty-three Saturdays, which is tough for the fellow who pays the help every week-end and pretty soft for the chaps who get Saturday afternoons off. Decoration day and July Fourth fall on Monday, which will mean vacations and then some. The only Friday the thirteenth comes in May, and Christmas falls on Sunday.

We celebrated Armistice day this week and it was notable that little was said or written about the "great victory." The thing that seemed to be emphasized most in Antioch was the honoring of those who had part in the big conflict and the hope that no further wars may jeopardize our civilization.

The most recent version of the mid-night ride of Paul Revere was enacted here Tuesday afternoon by Antioch firemen who, just 57 seconds after the alarm was sounded, were on their way to the Peterson fire. That's speed and then some.

Famous American Oak

Charter oak was nearly seven feet in diameter. It was in Hartford, Conn., and blew down in a storm on August 21, 1868. Its age was computed to be nearly one thousand years. A section of the trunk has been preserved in the rooms of the Connecticut Historical society; the remainder was kept or sold for small souvenirs. In a hollow of this tree was concealed the charter of Connecticut, rescued from Andros in 1687, according to tradition.

Meet "Lindy D"

JULIA SANDERSON of radio fame, speaking for "Lindy D," her not uncelebrated bull dog, has had to tell lots of people lately that her "Lindy" has no connections with the famous aviator, was not carried across the sea in the famous flight to Paris, and is an important personage on his own behalf. People who visit at the home of Miss Sanderson, near Springfield, Mass., find the canine member of the family a gracious host. Recently, at one of her Blackstone Plantation radio concerts, in which she is heard each Tuesday and Thursday night with Frank Crumit, Miss Sanderson was handed a telegram signed by "Lindy D" and informing her that he was listening and felt that she was in exceptionally good voice that evening.

The Girl From Texas Is Next Week's Crystal Attraction

"The Girl from Texas" and nine other jovial friends with J. B. Rotnour's Players will be the attraction at the Crystal theatre next Monday evening. Two hours of laughter and drama are offered in this stage hit.

A full house greeted the company's Monday night show, "The Call of the Woods," a drama of intense human interest, which was interspersed with sparkling specialties between the acts.

Rotnour's dramas are growing in popularity throughout the circuit. The company appears here every Monday night.

Beards Sprout on Missouri U. Campus

Students at the University of Missouri in Columbia have taken to growing beards as a new note in what the well-dressed young man will wear this season. This move on their part has been forced by the keen competition of coeds with their Eugene huts and elongated dresses. The boys decided that they will not shave their beards until women modify their Eugene styles.
